Start Time: 9:35 am

DR. LUIS SÁNCHEZ

Associate Dean of School of Arts and Sciences,
Cal State Channel Islands

Dr. Luis Sánchez connects his family's immigrant roots in Ventura County with his research on immigration and belonging. He challenges deficit-based narratives by highlighting the resilience, knowledge, and leadership undocumented students bring to higher education. The talk invites students, educators, and community members to help create environments where all students can belong and thrive.

VANESSA FRANK

Attorney, Law Office of Vanessa Frank

Vanessa Frank is a community-focused immigration attorney, serving working families throughout California's Central Coast. She will speak on the importance of seeking qualified legal counsel while addressing common myths and misinformation surrounding immigration legal representation.

Reconnecting With Our Sacred Fire: Women's Circle

Facilitated by Dr. Heidi Coronado

11:30 a.m.–1:30 p.m.

Campus Center Conference Room

DR. HEIDI CORONADO

Cal Lutheran GSOE Professor, Counselor, and Holistic and Integrative Transformational Coach

Bias against women can shape how we see ourselves from an early age. In this Women's Circle rooted in Indigenous wisdom, we'll gather to be seen and heard, reclaim parts of ourselves that may have been pushed aside, and reconnect with the sacred fire within. Together, we'll honor our strength and wisdom and carry them forward for future generations.
